

ENVIRONICS INTERNATIONAL NEWS

Mr. Ajay Poddar, MD, Syenergy Environics Ltd. represented ASSOCHAM India during the launch of ASSOCHAM’s Netherlands office and gave the keynote Address on ‘Make in India’ at a function held at The Cobra Museum, Amsterveen on 2nd December, 2015. The event was also graced by the Mayors of Amsterdam and Amsterveen, The Indian Ambassador to Netherlands and the founding Director of ASSOCHAM in Netherlands. There was a lot of optimism about trade and investment increasing between the two countries, especially with the presence of ASSOCHAM there now. People from both countries shared their positive experiences of working with one another.

More than 180 people attended the event. Many useful contacts were made, which will be followed up. Ms. Manisha Matanhelia, our Director (Operations) also attended.

ENVIROCHIP’S RETAIL INITIATIVES

Our Radiation Protection Chip is now available at a stone’s throw away from your house!!

After receiving a good response from customers at Mahindra's Baby Oye Stores across India, we have increased our footprint and have tied up with many large modern retail chains. Our product is now available in many stores of ‘The Mobile Store (TMS)’ in Delhi NCR and it will soon be available in more than 500 stores of ‘Reliance Digital’ across India and in 'Relay' Convenience Stores at Delhi, Mumbai and Bangalore Airports. Pharmacy Chains like Fortis Healthworld (formerly 'Religare') and Apollo Pharmacy have also introduced the Envirochip in many of their stores in Delhi NCR. Many traditional stores in various parts of Delhi NCR are also selling the Envirochip.

PHD HOUSE EMBRACES ENVIRONICS SERVICE

Environics Service has been implemented at PHDCCI offices in Chandigarh, Jaipur, Lucknow and Delhi to augment workplace productivity and health of more than 300 employees and visitors. PHDCCI is the first business chamber to show a high sense of Corporate and Social responsibility and we congratulate their Secretary General and President for the same.

ENVIRONICS CERTIFICATION

The 'Environics Healthy Building Certificate' for Radiation friendly buildings recognizes the noble intention and affirmation of any organization that 'they care' for the well-being of their employees and stakeholders. We offer a 'Silver Certificate' where only the correction of Ground Radiations (Geopathic Stresses) is implemented and a 'Gold

Certificate' if Radiation Protection from all electronic devices in addition to the Geopathic Stresses is implemented. Organizations proudly display the Certificate issued to them in their facilities.
